

Dear WPATH Members

In preparation for WPATH's 27th Scientific Symposium, being held in Montreal, Quebec, Canada, from September 16 – 20, 2022, we are thrilled to announce our first-ever opportunity to have our member's institutions, practices, or universities support WPATH and the work you do every day.

I know so many of us are excited to get back together again in person, and anticipate an amazing time to learn, socialize and network. We are also happy that those who are not able to attend live will be able to enjoy some live streaming sessions and to watch the entire conference on our virtual platform.

With this new way for your institution, university, or practice to support WPATH, they will be acknowledged onsite at the live event, on the conference meeting app, and on our website. The meeting app is active for an entire year following the live event – an unprecedented opportunity with immense exposure!

Please pass this information along to the appropriate person in your institution/university and let them know how important this public showing of support is to WPATH and the communities that our members serve.
